

off the fence.

Platinum Weddings (Series 2)

12 x 30'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Monet and Shane

After a nine-year separation, Monet and Shane picked up where they'd left off and have now planned a fairy tale wedding with a 20-member bridal party and an Italian gown with a price tag of over $10,000!

2. Meg and James

This South Beach destination wedding takes the cake – and the cake comes complete with Tiffany blue bands and a crystal encrusted monogram topper! Fireworks, flowers and Austrian crystals complete this Platinum Wedding!

3. Leah and Toby

Tucked in the hills of the Palm Desert, Leah and Toby's wedding on the golf course is surrounded by waterfalls and canyon views and their guests will be welcomed by a bagpipe player and $24,000 worth of white tulips!

4. Shareena and Sagar

Indian and American heritages unite in this elaborate affair featuring a traditional Indian Mehndi, a bridal gown adorned with silver and diamonds, and a magical forest theme, all for a mere $300,000!

5. Jaime and Jason

For a bride who is an event planner, Jaime certainly knew what she wanted – and with a budget of half a million dollars, she got that and more – including a 16-piece band, a four-tier cake and an enchanted forest!

6. Mary Beth and Jeffrey

Though they met under less than stellar circumstances, this couple truly sparkles – and so does their wedding! A martini luge, celebrity impersonators and hand wrapped cigars are just part of this Platinum Wedding.

7. Leslie and Eric

In Texas, where everything is bigger than life, this Platinum Wedding will be no exception! The beautiful Annabelle Mansion is the backdrop for a fairytale wedding that combines romance, music, food and... a helicopter.

8. Lydia and Justin

Five years after they went their separate ways, Lydia and Justin are together for good and are going all out in their dream wedding at the Arizona Biltmore Hotel! Their totally platinum take on weddings revolves around the Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired landmark hotel, an Italian theme, custom suitcases filled with imported gifts for their guests, and a seven-course dinner.

9. Jennifer and Mark

Crystals, crystals, crystals. Oprah's favorite décor designer really blinged out Jennifer and Mark's wedding, but this $600,000 affair didn't stop there. The guests were also treated to an extravagant cocktail hour, a reception topped off with a 10-tier cake, and a $10,000 water wall in the after-party lounge.

10. Mili and Vishal

Exuberant colors and joyful dancing make the many days of this Indian-American celebration come alive. Throw in immense amounts of jewelry, food and events, and you have a wedding of truly Platinum proportions.

11. Aimee and Julian

This NFL linebacker, his bride, and their wedding party of 23 will enjoy a tropical fantasy theme complete with cabanas, a mojito bar, and palm trees. Famed cake maker Sylvia Weinstock will be on hand to present her 5ft tall cake to the happy couple.

12. Amanda and Ray

It's a Platinum Wedding, Nashville-style! A 30-member gospel choir will welcome the bride down the aisle at the Grand Old Opry theatre. Then, a fire truck will whisk the couple to a $500,000 reception orchestrated by 35 vendors from across the country.