

off the fence.

Earth Tripping

6 x 30'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. New York City

We meet up with the innovators of the Green Market system and tour Union Square. At night, we schmooze at a monthly event called Green Drinks – a friendly gathering of environmentally-minded people. We travel to the best places for eating organic, locally grown food, like Birdbath Bakery where they transport their baked goods by rickshaw.

2. Mexico City

Mexico City is located in the southern part of Mexico. It's a sprawling city of about 350 distinct neighbourhoods. With a well-earned reputation for being one of the most populated, most crowded cities on the planet, is responsible travel even possible here in this metropolis of millions?

3. Singapore

This island maybe known as Asia's little red dot, but we're in search of all the green spots in Singapore. From Chinatown by trishaw to dragon boat racing on the river, to dinner à la scorpion. Get ready for some earth tripping in Singapore.

4. Kuala Lumpur

Just north of the equator, this city is proud home to two of the tallest buildings in the world, and some of the oldest rainforest on the planet. This is Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. From the heart of the Malay culture to bamboo rafting on the Langat River, to dinner via wheelbarrow, it's time for some earth tripping in KL.

5. Santiago

This sprawling city on the western edge of Latin America is surrounded by the breathtaking Andes mountain range. This is Santiago, Chile. From the city's historic heart to a sacred native ceremony, to ziplining across the Maipo River, it's time for some earth tripping in Santiago.

6. Buenos Aires

This vibrant passionate city is the melting pot of Latin America. Home to tango, Evita and football, this is Buenos Aires, Argentina. From the barrios to the estancias to tango in the night, it's time for some earth tripping in Buenos Aires.