EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Classic Racers on Porto's Street Circuit

Racing Classic Race cars on Porto's street circuit is dangerous. Unlike a race circuit, there are no run-off areas, no gravel pits and no room for error, just bone-crunching concrete.

2. Classic Racers at Silverstone

Once a year, rare classic race cars populate the Silverstone Grand Prix circuit, one of the fastest tracks in the world. Meet the men who race them at blistering speeds.

3. Classic Racers at the Nürburgring

Everybody knows the Nordschleife, the longest and most challenging racetrack in the world and part of the famous Nürburgring in the hills of the Eifel in Germany. A three-hour endurance race for classic GT race cars from the late 50s to the mid-60s.

4. Classic Racers at Laguna Seca

Laguna Seca, Pebble Beach, Monterey. These words describe the Holy Grail among classic car aficionados. The reason one rarely sees vintage Ferraris driven at classic race events is because they are just too valuable.

5. Classic Racers at Lime Rock

Join us on Labor Day weekend at the most beautiful, time-forgotten track of Lime Rock Park, CT, USA. Be a race team member, driving rare 50s and 60s Ferraris, an even rarer Aston Martin DB4GT.

6. Classic Racers at the Six Hours of Spa

Spa – the mythical track. The absolute number one highlight for historic racing on the planet. The brutal six-hour endurance race that stretches into the dark. Driver changes, team tactics, refuelling, night driving.
