EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Key West to Atlanta

Season 2 begins with the RV spinning across bridges and causeways to Miami. We tour two of Florida's exemplary private art collections, the Margoles and the Shacks, before visiting Pop artist and icon, James Rosenquist.

2. Atlanta to Houston

We discover an artistic haven, meet the quilting women of Gee's Bend, drive to the Mad Potter of Biloxi and roll into New Orleans to see why Degas wanted to stay, before a Louisiana send-off with the shadow figures tagging Houston with wool.

3. Houston to Dallas Fort-Worth

The third leg of our journey, and the show is all about Texas Texas Texas!

4. Dallas to Denver

Our fourth week on the road is a huge journey. We gaze at Mount Rushmore, and explore the wilder features. Including the world's largest collection of the world's smallest versions of the world's largest things. Don't ask, just watch.

5. Denver to Napa Valley

We keep trucking! We meet the man who moved 1,000 tons of rock, pause to see Project 337, brake for two of US's most venerated sculptures and reach Napa Valley and tour the Hess Collection, before seeing the only Hundetwasser building in the United States.

6. San Francisco, California

We just couldn't leave the city. This week features some of the most diverse buildings in the US. We also visit 2 famous structures in the Bay area, the Cartoon Museum and the largest collection of Rodin bronzes outside Paris. And Toby gets a tattoo.

7. San Francisco to Vancouver

On the road again, north to Seattle and the Canadian border. We're taking a look at buildings by two leading architectural figures: Portland's Federal Court Building by Morphosis and Rem Koolhaas's acclaimed Seattle Public Library. The art gets serious too!

8. Vancouver to Anchorage

Week eight is diverse as the vistas along the 3,000 miles from Vancouver to Alaska: a myriad of artists, Alaska's Ideal House, and the world's most under-rated structure, the Quonset Hut. All we need worry about now is returning the RV to Miami.

9. Artists of Season 2

We take a look back at some of the amazing artists we have met along the way including: James Rosenquist, Jerry Simpson, Jim Denevan, Stan Herd, Maude Shuyler Clay, Gees bend Quilters, Charles Peterson, Photographer, Angela Grossman, just to name a few!
