

off the fence.

Platinum Weddings (Series 5)

12 x 30'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Sabrina and Danish

Only the finest will do for the daughter of a wealthy businessman. Sabrina has always dreamt of having a fairy-tale wedding like Princess Diana's, so from the moment she became engaged to Danish, she and her family began planning a royal event. They even hired a wedding planner who used to work for the royal family of Saudi Arabia.

2. Ashleigh and Kristopher

The bride has always loved all things pink and girly. The groom is obsessed with his 80s music. But Mom saves the biggest surprise for last: an explosive firework show choreographed to the couple's favourite music, and it blows the crowd away as the reception kicks into gear, a perfect ending to another platinum event.

3. Michelle and John

A gilded mansion of the East Coast elite is the setting Michelle and John chose for their sophisticated seaside wedding complete with rich red flowers and décor. The destination-wedding week's festivities kick off with a nautical tour of Narragansett Bay on a 101ft schooner to welcome the out of town guests.

4. Rachel and CJ

Rachel and CJ live in Chicago, where the weather can be unpredictable at best, so their dream wedding brings the outdoors in, with a magnificent floral canopy that transforms a ballroom into an enchanted garden. When Rachel and CJ see the completed ballroom in its entirety, they are moved to tears by the lush floral wonderland lit by the glow of hundreds of candles.

5. Jerrica and Joe

Old-fashioned Hollywood glamour meets the pomp and circumstance of the military in this California wedding. Bride Jerrica and groom Joe fell in love over the movies, so when it came time to plan their wedding, they decided to combine their love of classic films with the pageantry of the armed forces.

6. Gabriela and Jason

Gabriela and Jason want an all-white sparkling event that will be intimate enough to allow them to express their love for each other, but posh enough to wow their friends and families. In order to achieve that, they have hired top-notch Beverly Hills wedding designers and planners to help them transform an exclusive Los Angeles area country club, frequented by sports and entertainment celebrities.

7. Charity and Frank

Frank and Charity met 12 years before they started dating, so when they finally decided to marry, their platinum wedding was a celebration of a love that was worth the wait! Charity is a hairstylist and Frank is a homebuilder in Sacramento, California. When it comes to the “big day,” Frank is sparing no expense on their lavish $1m+ wedding.

8. Eddie and Catherine

Eddie fell head over heels for Catherine years ago, she was leaving town for law school. When Catherine returned to work in her family’s restaurant business, they met up again and this time, she fell for him too. Now they’re ready to walk down the aisle and they’re pulling out all the stops.

9. Carrie and Jeff

Carrie and Jeff’s wedding takes place in a romantic Italian-styled estate built in 1916. The Renaissance architecture and gardens provide a luxurious backdrop for their $600,000 wedding, while Carrie sparkles in $400,000 worth of jewels.

10. Charlotte and Darin

Charlotte and Darin hit it off at a friend’s wedding reception and now they’re having a platinum bash of their own. Because the bride and groom will be honeymooning in France, their wedding has a Winter in Paris theme and a price tag of $800,000. After the emotional vows, guests file into the ballroom where they are transported to a winter wonderland.

11. Kristel and Jason

Kristel and Jason, a pro football player, blend traditional and modern elements in their wedding. Kristel will wear a $15,000 gown, and $1m in bridal bling. The music at this event will also dazzle, including jazz musicians and a gospel choir.

12. Sanya and Aaron

Olympic champion Sanya Richards and her groom, pro football player Aaron Ross, are throwing a platinum wedding for the record books. The theme is Fashionable Elegance, and the bride will wear a $40,000 St Pucci gown and 7-carat diamond ring.

