

off the fence.

Aerial Britain

4 x 60'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Southern England

Southern England – a region of engineering marvels and ancient masterworks, hectic cities and quiet countryside, and real and fictional heroes. From the great cliffs where a mythical King emerged to the glittering towers of a financial superpower, this show surveys southern England's most famous sites, while uncovering the incredible human stories of its inhabitants.

2. Northern England

Northern England. A region of rich variety and extraordinary contrasts, from the great cities that powered the British Empire to the picturesque moorlands, lakes and dales that inspired literary icons. This is the home of mythical hero Robin Hood and real-life legends The Beatles. Inspired by a spirit of creativity, its people embrace their past and are ambitious about their future.

3. Wales

From picturesque landscapes to cultural icons and from historical monuments to engineering greatness, Wales has forged a vibrant and unique identity within Britain. This is a land of myth and majesty, of legendary kings and warrior rebels. With more castles per square mile than anywhere else in the world, here lie the hills that put the Stone in Stonehenge and the secret hideaways where Led Zeppelin and Queen changed the history of rock. This is a country that bears the indelible marks of 2000 years of invasion, but that forged its own destiny from the great monuments of its industrial past. This show explores the incredible culture, architecture and engineering of a nation that never once lost its identity.

4. Scotland

In the north of Britain lies a land of epic grandeur and enduring legend. This is a place of soaring peaks shrouded in mist and snow, of rugged glens that have known war and tragedy, and eerie lakes that may conceal monsters. It's a land of heroes, from hard rock icons like AC/DC to freedom fighters like Braveheart himself, William Wallace. Home to a people proud of their culture and determined to keep that spirit alive, this is Scotland.

