EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Winter is Coming

As winter approaches, the maintenance crews at Ted Stevens International Airport battle many elements to keep things running.

2. Struck By Lighting

Thanksgiving is the busiest day in American aviation history. The staff fight freezing snowstorms, crowds, and birds of prey as they try to keep the airport open for business.

3. Lights Out

It's the only hub airport on the planet to operate in temperatures as low as -38 Celsius and winds over 100mph. Katie chases a moose on a runway, and weather threatens Nick's flight into the interior.

4. Coronavirus Crisis

Over 200 US citizens arrive on an emergency flight from China, fleeing the pandemic. In a world first, Rotak Helicopter pilot Kevin tries to airlift a crashed medevac aircraft.

5. Relentless Winter

A month of record snowfall threatens safety on the runways. A flight into remote backcountry leaves bush pilot Nick at risk of running out of fuel, miles from any roads.

6. 50 Years Storm

Record snowfall causes a ten-ton de-icing truck to crash and threatens to shut down the runways. Customs officials intercept counterfeit goods worth tens of thousands of dollars.
