

off the fence.

Last Great Tuskers, The

3x60'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. HWANGE TUSKER

In this episode, the team starts the search for a suitable tusker to collar in the Hwange National Park of Zimbabwe. This park hosts some of the biggest bodied elephants in Africa. There's never a dull moment as remarkable sideshows unfold during their journey. Some of the elephant encounters leave Kate speechless. But do they have what it takes to locate and collar the right great tusker?

2. MATUSADONA TUSKER

In this episode, the intrepid team continue their mission on the shores of lake Kariba in the Matusadona national park of Zimbabwe. Find out about these particular elephants and see how one population of tuskers is so different to the next.

Craig and Chap explain the fascinating makeup of elephant bones. The team explore on foot, boat and vehicle in search of their next bull to collar. And to everyone's amazement, an extraordinary tusker of days gone by makes his appearance. Could This bull hold the key to the future of Matusadonna national park ? But once again... there is a serious complication

3. MANA POOLS TUSKER

In this final episode the team travel to Mana Pools National park. Here they find amazing elephants doing amazing things. One of Craig's favorite bulls scares every fiber of Kate's body. The team gets close to the action as they try to collar an extraordinary bull with a unique trick up his sleeve. Find out if they complete their mission....