

KILLING HITLER

1 X 1 HOUR – HIGH DEFINITION

Adolf Hitler is perhaps the most feared and despised man of the 20th century. Not surprisingly, there were over 40 documented attempts on Hitler's life.

Assassins ranged from simple craftsmen to high-ranking soldiers in the Führer's own military. When the smoke cleared, how did one of history's most vile figure manage to survive so many attempted assassinations?

Suicide bombers. Infiltrating snipers. Female film stars. Aerial raids. Killing Hitler reveals the ingenious methods used to target the Nazi leader. Security experts explain why the plots failed and, using modern weapon and explosive experiments, determine what slight change could have made these missions successful. Historians theorize how history could have been altered had just one of the killers eliminated Hitler.

Killing Hitler detonates little-known historical facts into an explosive programme sure to captivate viewers as it poses the great question: What If...?
