

JFK'S WOMEN: THE SCANDALS REVEALED

1 X 1 HOUR – HIGH DEFINITION

An explosive new biography that reveals the real John Fitzgerald Kennedy – a President prepared to risk his political career and, at the height of the cold war, his country's security in return for sex.

We uncover his relationships with four 'dangerous' women during his Presidency: Marilyn Monroe, Ellen Rometsch, Mariella Novotny and Judith Campbell. All four were seen as security risks by the FBI, three because of alleged Communist connections, and one because of her close links to senior Mafia bosses. Using new documentary evidence and recently-released FBI files, the film goes on to debunk the myth of JFK that still persists over 40 years after his death.

JFK's belief that he was untouchable, despite his blatant womanising, threatened to lead to his political downfall. In a terrible irony, as the American press braced itself to reveal the story, his assassination in 1963 took his life, but saved his reputation.

Quickfire Media / Off the Fence for France 3