EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Climate Optimism with Christiana Figueres

Lucy and Tom hear from Christiana Figueres, the extraordinary diplomat who rebuilt the UN climate change negotiation process after it failed. Christiana explains that the key to solving climate change is in your head, and your heart.

2. Investigating Climate with George Monbiot

Lucy and Tom speak to 'professional trouble-maker' and investigative journalist George Monbiot, whose work has exposed genocide, ecocide and corruption. In this episode George shares his views on how we can fight climate change through the media.

3. Climate Justice with Mary Heglar and Amy Westervelt

Lucy and Tom hear from Mary Heglar and Amy Westervelt about how to communicate climate and social justice. Mary and Amy get straight to the point: "if you f it up, you clean it up".

4. Building a Movement with Bill McKibben

Lucy and Tom speak to Bill McKibben, trail-blazing climate journalist and movement building activist, responsible for $14 trillion of divestment from fossil fuels. Bill explains how ordinary people are taking on the fossil fuel industry — and winning.

5. Ocean Activism with Hugo Tagholm

Lucy and Tom hear from Hugo Tagholm, CEO of Surfers Against Sewage, a local community which has grown into a global force for change. Hugo shares his toolkit on how stunts, campaigns and authenticity have super-charged activism for the ocean.
